A : Voice I :

1. [O] Doctorum principem super ethera revocant virtutum digna merita.
Ergo vive voci detur opera,
promat mentis fervor, intus concita.
2. O Francisce Zabarella, gloria,
doctor, bonos et lumen Patavorum,
vive felix de tanta Victoria;
pro te virescit fama Patavorum.
3. O Francisce Zabarella, pabula
parasti pastoribus armentorum,
quibus pascant oves : grata secula
te pro munere revocant laborum.

The fitting merits of his deed extol the prince of teachers to beyond the skies. Therefore let sincerely summoned care be given to living voice, let fervour of mind show forth.

O Francesco Zabarella, glory, teacher, honour, light of Padua, live contented at such a triumph. Padua's fame will increase because of thee.

O Francesco Zabarella, thou hast provided nourishment for the shepherds of the flocks, on which they may graze their sheep. A grateful world proclaims thee as reward for thy labours.

B : Voice II :

1. [O] Melodia suavissima cantemus,
tangant voces melliflue sidera,
concordie carmen liram sonemus,
resonet per choros pulsa cithara.
2. O Francisce Zabarella, protector,
imo verus pater rei publice,
illos ad se vocat rerum conditor,
qui fortune miserentur lubrice.
3. O Francisce Zabarella, causas
specularis omnium creatorum ;
tuas posteri resonebunt musas
per omnia secula seculorum.

Let us sing with sweetest melody, let our mellifluous voices reach the stars, let us sound the harmonious lyre, let the plucked cithara resound throughout the choirs.

O Francesco Zabarella, protector, yea, true father of the commonweal, the Maker calls unto himself those that have pity for fleeting misfortune.

O Francesco Zabarella, thou dost watch over the affairs of all creatures : posterity will resound thy praises for ever and ever.
